ENG

Finally, the respond to your prayers... A brand new release with the trio Lasers and their successful album debut "Juno" (irregularCD07) involved. Voted and nominated in Spain by the UFI for the best album of indie-electronic music. This pack includes an interesting bunch of remixes. The main track chosen to be reinvented is the 1st single extracted from that album; this is "Solar System".

The first round is for The Suicide Of Western Culture. Theirs is a breathless cut. Mechanical, scuzzy and beautiful as always. Melodies and voices humanizing their particular pedals and keyboards universe into a delightful song. Second is for the chemical of textures and beat-maker Brunetto. Yes! He's back and as a gossip is spreading, is preparing his 4th album for 2013. His is a black-and-white tunnel of electro-beats, atmospheric samples and "drama" subs. Melting a floating musicality with guttural bass lines. Got it?

The remix most imbued in a sweet-natured danciness is Radiocontrol one. Resulting in a union of house-pop, dance and summer-breeze. Main melody is very organic and highly contagious, keep you footing from the very first second.

The pack is completed by a suitable bonus track. The promising Boreals remixing the song "Awake" also included on "Juno". Theirs, a mind-blowingly beautiful music well fed and settled in less than 3 minutes of time. Shimmering keyboards and vocals very respectful to the original version, but in a slowed tempo.

Highly recommend territories to explore 😊

ESP

Y por fin la respuesta a tus plegarias... Un nuevo lanzamiento bajo el amparo del trío Lasers y su primer álbum editado, "Juno" (irregularCD07), votado y nominado como mejor álbum de música electrónica-indie por la UFI. El tema original elegido no es otro que el primer single extraído de dicho álbum, "Solar System".

El primer envite es para The Suicide Of Western Culture quienes se marcan un corte sin respiros, mecánico, sucio, escurridizo y precioso como siempre. Melodías y voces que ayudan a humanizar ese particular universo de pedaleras y teclados que ellos controlan. ¡Ñam! El segundo corre a cargo del químico de las texturas y los ritmos Brunetto. Circula el rumor de que el sevillano prepara su 4º álbum para 2013. Su remix es un túnel con luces y sombras de electro-beats, samples atmosféricos, momentos flotantes, bajos guturales y subbajos rocosos. Todo fundido como en un sándwich mixto. ¿Lo has pillado?

La remezcla con un tono más amable yailable es la de Radiocontrol. Una unión de house-pop y brisa refrescante. La melodía principal engancha y te deja con carita de ruiseñor desde el primer segundo.

El pack se completa con un bonus track perfecto. El que componen los prometedores Boreals reinventando "Awake". Otro tema del disco "Juno". Una chifladura sana con una musicalidad admirable encerrada en menos de 3 minutos. Voces y teclados brillantes, muy respetuosos con la pieza original... Pero a un tempo más bajo.

Todos, territorios, altamente recomendables de explorar ☺
